Mr. Stanley (Kentucky) to-day in the House of Representatives.

Speaking to his resolution, which calls upon the President to furnish the House with any information the Department of Commerce and Labor may have as to the combination between the tobacco companies above named, in violation of the act in restraint of trade, Mr. Stanley stated he did not seek to push his resolution at this time. He had been in consultation with Commissioner Garfield, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, and had learned that the Burcau of Corporations was "hot on the trail of these companies," and as he desired to have them run to earth, he would not missis upon the passage of the resolution new.

Mr. Stanley said that "neither the Standard Oil Company or the Pennsylvania Rafiroad Company, or any other combination of men, outside the penitentiary, have openly violated the law as to the American Tobacco Company during the past two years." He made the statement that it was the most perfectly organized combination that weighs upon the shoulders of the American peo-

During his speech, which Mr. Stanley was permitted to Make by unanimous consent, he said that he would not press his resolution, fearful lest it might result in an "immunity bath" and have another decision of the same character as that of Jucke Humphreys Pg prayed to God that "President in future would spare the American people from his like."

FIRST CONFERENCE ON RATE BILL HELD

Senators Elkins, Cullom and Tillman Conferees on Part of Upper Branch.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 28.—A message from the House asking for a conference on the railroad rate bill was laid before the Senate to-day by Vice-President Fairbanks. Senator Tillman, who had charge of the measure during its troubled course through the Senate, moved that the request be granted and conferces appointed by the chair. Senator Balley protested against a provision in what is known as the coal amendment, which provision excepted lumber and manufactured products thereof. He said he was out of the chamber when the amendment was adopted, and although he knew it had been offered, he had thought it defeated that the request be granted and conferees ment. Was adopted, and thought it defeated,

The conference asked was agreed to, and the Vice-President named Senators Eikins, Culiom and Tiliman as conferees on the part of the Senate.

Ten minutes after the Senate conferees were appointed Chairman Eikins called a meeting of the joint conferees, and they assembled in Senator Eikins's room. The meeting was only preliminary, though there was some discussion of the bill. The House conferees were asked to present any objections they had to the "wisdom at the Senato" in amending the House kill. "We commend to you," said one of the senators, "as a piece of our monumental foily the anti-pass amendment, but you may do as you will with it."
The conferees will meet again to-morrow.

Delegation of Foremost Men in Parliament Visit Pardo

Palace.

RECEIVED BY THE PRINCESS

(By Associated Press.)
MADRID, May 28.—A delegation of the foremost men in the Chamber of Deputies and Senate, without distinction of party, visited the Pardo Palace to-night and presented Princess Ena of Battenberg, the future Queen of Spain, with an address of welcome on behalf of the Spainsh nation. This action is significant of the sincere cordiality with which Spain has received the foreign Princess.

Address to Princess.

Address to Princess. King Alfonso, with Princess Ena, re-edved the visiting statesmen in the grand salon of the Pardo Palace, Senor Canalajes, president of the Cortes, ad-dressing the Princess, said:

Cantajes, president of the Cortes, addressing the Princess, said;
"Madam,—We come_before your Royal Highness both as representatives-of-the parliament_of. Spain and as representatives of the nation to convey to you the assurance, without the slightest semblance of flattery, that if the nation itself had chosen a spouse for its King as our august sovereign has seen fit to select a Queen for his people, the aspirations of Don Alfonso XIII. would have coincided most happily and completely with the wishes of his people. His Majesty has been a model son and a model brother, which inspires us to confidence that he will be a model husband.

"Age to Parliament, we will do our utmost that Your Highness may be huny, in Spain and not, regret parting from your latters land."

"Your Highness, in aiding the task of the King, will work for the good of Spain, and to this noble purpose let us all consecrate our best efforts," Lopez Dominguez, president of the Senate, spoke in a similar strain.

Gracious Reception.

Gracious Reception.

Later in the day the municipality of Madrid extended its salutations to the Princess and presented her with an address. Princess Ena received the city's representatives most graciously, conversing with the leaders of the delegation. During the afternoon King Alfonso took the Princess in an automobile to Escorial-where wrants were placed on the tombs of Spanish sovereign buried there.

Judge Ingram Disposes of Pathetic Case in Law and

Equity Court,

Judge Ingram, of the Law and Equity Court, disposed of an interesting and pathetic case yesterday afternoon when he caused an order to be entered irnasferring to John R. Poore the custody of his nine-year-old daughter, Mary, who was reared from an infant by Mrs. Petty A. Alvis. Much testimony was adduced on both sides, and the attorneys fought hard for their respective clients. It was after 7 o'clock when the court deliberately and slowly read his brief optsion.

His honor said the welfare of the child was the first consideration, and after a careful hearing of the case he was of the opinion that its interests would be best subserved by its return to its

When these latjer words were uttered from the bench the little flaxen-haired girl who had never known any mother save Mrs. Alvis, threw her little arms about her neck and sobbed hitterly. The adopted mother wept as though she was in great agony, but she finally became more composed.

The order was suspended until this

NORFOLIK, VA., May 28.—When President Roosevelt enters Norfolk harbor Wednesday morning on beard the yacht Mayflower, en route to theliver an address in the Naval Cemetery at Portenouth, under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union, he will be greeted by every boat from Crancy Island to Norfolk, with toots of whistles, and waving with toots of whistles, and waving every boat from Craney Island to Norfolk, with toots of whistles, and waving of flags.

Mayor Reed, of Portsmouth, to-day is sued a statement calling on all shipmasters to decorate their vessels, and for all steamers to salute the Mayflower as sho passes up the harbor. The Mayor's request was hardly necessary, however, as shipmasters had already planned to give the President a noisy greeting. Grimes Battery, of Portsmouth, a State Volunteer, of Portsmouth, will fire a national salute from the naval hospital point as soon as the Mayflower is sighted. Salors from the battleships Virginia, Texas, Louisiana, Rhoda Island and Minheapolis, from the training station and navy yard, from the torpodo boats in reserve and from the receiving ships Franklin and Richmond, will participate in the parade to be given in Portsmouth before the President's address.

It is expected that between 3,000 and 5,000 sailors alone will be in line, besides soldlers and uniformed bodies of every description.

The chief marshal of the parade for the Army and Navy Union, is Gunner Bernard Patrick Donnelly, of the battleship Minneapolis, now at anchor in Hampton Roads. The civic chief marshal is Maurice R, Hudgins, of Portsmouth.

HOGE ACADEMY.

The Military Features Were Inspiring and Interesting.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BLACKSTONE, VA., May 28.—The most successful and enjoyable part of the commencement of the Hoge Memorial Military Academy took place this morning between the hours of 9 and 12 on the parade ground of the academy, when the long-expected compelitive drills and sham battle took place. The first on the programme was the compelitive drill between the various companies of the school. This was very close, Company Awinning over Company, B. by, only one point.

Then came the battallon drill, which was excellent. The Butts Manual came next, and the cadets showed unusual skill in their manipulations, and elicited frequent and long applause by the unity of their movements. The last of the drilling was an individual competitive drill. All of the cadets were contestants. This was very exciting, there being great rivalry and excitement among the members of the various companies, each hoping that a man from his company would win the medal. The contest narrowed win the medal. The contest narrowed down to four cadets, and it was almost a draw between them. However, Cadet C. a fraw between them, However, Cadet C. H. Huddle, of Louisiana, and/a member of Company A., was awarded the medal. The last military display was the sham battle between the companies. Several defours were made. Then the companies formed in different parts of the parade ground—a field of some thirty acres—each opening fire on his opponent. The firing lasted for about thirty minutes amid tense excitement. When the smoke and din of battle cleared away, one of the cudets of Company A had fallen and his comrades were tenderly bearing him off the field. This was merely a sham, but was so effectively carried out that even Colonel Fishburne, principal of the academy, ran to-the, feigning boy to see if he was really hurt.

The exercises of the morning were closed by the presenting of a beautiful national flag to Company A, which had won in the context over the other companies. The flag was given by their commandant, Major Hancock. Mr. W. Moneure Gravatt called forward Cadet Captain W. B. Crawford, of Company A, and in cloquent and stirring terms presented him with the flag for his company. H. Huddle, of Louisiana, and a member
